Rights of individuals afforded to you under the revFADP

You may have certain rights under the revFADP regarding your access to, information about, or the processing of your personal data. These rights include, where permitted under applicable law and subject to certain exceptions:

- The right to be informed, which means we tell you what personal data we process, why we process your personal data, and with which third parties we share your personal data;
- The right to access, which is your right to see the personal data that we have about you;
- The right to rectification, which is your right to have your personal data corrected or amended if it is incorrect;
- The right to data portability, which is your right to ask for a copy of your personal data in a commonly used machine-readable format;
- The right to object to further processing of a specific data processing activity or a specific disclosure to a third party;
- The right to withdraw your consent if the processing of your special personal data is based on your consent or where you have consented to automated processing.

To learn more about how you can exercise your rights, where permitted under applicable law, please see the section below.

How individuals can access, change, or suppress their Personal Data

If you would like to request to access, correct, update, suppress or restrict Personal Data, object to or opt out of the processing of Personal Data, withdraw your consent (which will not affect the lawfulness of processing prior to the withdrawal) or if you would like to request to receive an electronic copy of your Personal Data for purposes of transmitting it to another company (to the extent the right to data portability is provided to you by applicable law), you may contact us by emailing: individualrightsrequests@bofa.com. We will respond to your request consistent with applicable law.

In your request, please make clear what Personal Data you would like to have changed, whether you would like to have the Personal Data suppressed from our database or otherwise let us know what limitations you would like to put on our use of the Personal Data. For your protection, we may only implement requests with respect to the Personal Data associated with the email address that you use to send us your request, and we may need to verify your identity before implementing your request. We will try to comply with your request as soon as reasonably practicable.

Please note that we may need to retain certain information for recordkeeping purposes and/or to complete any transactions that you began prior to requesting a change or deletion. There may also be residual information that will remain within our databases and other records, which will not be removed.

Use of Services by Minors

The Services and products offered by us are not directed to individuals under the age of eighteen (18). Where products or services allow for parents or guardians to authorize access for individuals under 18 (minors), we will (1) obtain all consents required by law and then (2) collect, use, and disclose only that information of such individuals under 18 as may be reasonably necessary to provide such product or service and only for the intended product or service.

Individuals may submit Personal Data about their minor children or legal wards in relation to attendance at or participation in an event. Individual parents or guardians must have the legal authority to disclose such Personal Data to us and make decisions related to processing of such Personal Data in connection with the event.
